

A LETTER TO UMAGOGO

By

Angel Ntuntu Masilela

19 June 2010

MAGOGO HAS BEEN A VERY LOVING, CARING, UNDERSTANDING, HELPFUL AND PATIENT GRANDMOTHER TO ME. EVER SINCE I WAS YOUNG MAGOGO USED TO LIKE HOLDING ME AND I WOULD CRY SOMETIMES WHEN I WANTED MY MOM AND MAGOGO WOULD JUST LAUGH UNTIL I STOP CRYING AND EVENTUALLY I WOULD STOP CRYING. AS I GOT OLDER I WOULD VISIT MAGOGO OFTEN AND JUST GET SO EXCITED TO GO SEE MY GRANDMOTHER AGAIN AND JUST SMILE WITH JOY AND WHEN WE GOT THERE I WOULD RUN OR WALK QUICKLY TO MAGOGO AND JUST HUG AND KISS HER AND MAGOGO WOULD HAVE A SMILE ON HER FACE

I MISS HAVING YOU IN MY LIFE AND I KEEP WONDERING WHAT YOU WOULD HAVE SAID TO ME AS I GROW OLDER, WHAT YOU WOULD HAVE TAUGHT ME ABOUT LIFE, ABOUT BEING A YOUNG LADY AND HOW TO MAKE EVERYONE FEEL AT HOME AND FEEL WELCOME IN OUR HOME. I FEEL I WAS DEPRIVED OF YOUR PRESENCE TOO EARLY AND I MAY NOT KNOW THE PERSON BEHIND THE FACE THE SMILE AND THE VOICE, BUT YOUR LEGACY WILL FOREVER BE CHERISHED AND UPHELD ALWAYS

LOVE ANGEL