MAGOGO COURAGE

A JERRY MOFOKENG-MAKHETHA STAGE ACT

Brecht's Mother Courage found ways to make ends meet for her family through a 30-year war.

Mama Masilela - our Magogo Courage, carried the womb, shoulders, arms and everything of the mothers whose sons and daughters went into exile from '76. She fed everyone 'underage'. She prayed, cooked, nursed, wept and went through it all as Magogo Courage.

This journey of a family and its sacrifices is told through narration, song, poetry and sounds...
